

The Boys' Brigade.

WHAT THE OLD BOYS ARE DOING FOR BRITAIN AND WHAT YOU CAN DO FOR THEM.

TO THE BOYS OF THE BRIGADE.

Over 150,000 Old Boys of the Brigade are serving with the Forces. Some already have laid down their lives; many have been mentioned in despatches, and already two have won the Victoria Cross. Every Boy in the Brigade is proud to think that The Boys' Brigade has provided this great army, and it is believed that Boys will welcome an opportunity of showing their admiration for the gallant way the Old Boys have answered their Country's Call.

And here is the opportunity.

Boys of the Brigade are being asked to present to the Old Boys a B.B. RECREATION HUT to be established in France near the fighting line. The Hut will be a big one, large enough to accommodate a thousand men at a time. It will be provided with games, papers, magazines and writing materials, and there will be a coffee bar for light refreshments. It will be managed by B.B. Officers, and will in fact be much like the Boys' Clubs which so many Companies have.

To Old Boys far from home, enduring all the hardships of War, it will give immense pleasure to find that the Old Brigade has not forgotten them, and to be able to renew old B.B. associations, and recall happy memories of the past.

IT IS HOPED THAT EVERY BOY IN EVERY COMPANY
IN THE BRIGADE WILL HIMSELF CONTRIBUTE AS MUCH
AS HE CAN AFFORD, AND WILL DO HIS BEST TO GET HIS FRIENDS TO HELP TOO.

Your Officers will explain the scheme to you in detail. Back them up all you can, and make it a big success. Much as you would wish to, you cannot serve in the field yourself, but here is an opportunity of serving your Country and your old Comrades, by helping those who are fighting for us in the great fight for truth and honour.

THE BRIGADE EXPECTS THAT EVERY BOY WILL DO HIS BIT.
