

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

6th March, 1914.

Dear General Moody,

Many thanks for your letter of today's date telling me that the King's Medal, one of which you showed me, has been approved by His Majesty, the submission coming through the Home Office.

Yours very truly,

Stampenden

Major-General
Sir John Moody.